Catholic schools

Throughout history, the Catholic Church has been a leader in education in all corners of the globe. Catholic schools are, if not the best, among the best in every continent and every country.

One among these best schools is St. Joseph school in Keren, Eritrea. It was founded in 1949 by the De La Salle Christian brothers. Ever since the school has been a center of quality education teaching all subjects and Christian values. St. Joseph students score among the best in the nation. Today, the school is coed and serves 1500 students.

A reminder of the good memories and nostalgic old days! A million thanks to all Christian brothers who gave us a superb education.

The Catholic Eparchy runs schools in the cities and small villages in remote locations. No matter what the physical appearance or how materially unprivileged a place may be, Catholic schools provide educational opportunities to our future generations. The following pictures are a testimony of the many good works the Catholic Church provides.
